Michael P. Cangemi, CPA <sup>retired</sup>, an author and business advisor is the former President, Chief Executive Officer & Director of Financial Executives International, the professional association for senior-level corporate financial executives (FEI 2007-08) and President, Chief Executive Officer and Director of Etienne Aigner Group, Inc., a leading designer of women's accessories (Aigner- 1991-2004). He currently serves as President of Cangemi Company LLC, which he founded, and through which he serves as senior advisor and director to various companies and manages his other business interests.

Mr. Cangemi currently has a significant focus on Technology for Business and specifically Continuous Monitoring and Analytics for GRC and Business process Improvement. He is a Senior Fellow at and serves on the Rutgers Continuous Audit Advisory Board. Mr. Cangemi is a Senior Advisor to Oversight Systems (CM & Analytics), CaseWare RSM (CA & CM Analytics), and Instride Footwear. He is a past advisor and investor in Solink Corp (Video Analytics).

Mr. Cangemi serves on the Advisory Board of Investors Bank; the FEI Committee on Finance & Technology and their GRC Committee; the EDPACS Editorial Advisory Board, the ISACA Governance Committee and has served on numerous corporate and not for profit boards.

A frequent speaker and meeting facilitator, in 1993, he published his second book Managing the Audit Function. The second and third editions were published in 1996 and 2003 respectively. The book was featured in the business section of the Sunday New York Times in August 2002 and translated into Chinese in 2005 and Serbian 2013.

Through Cangemi Company Michael has a significant focus on technology, including Continuous Monitoring, analytics, business performance improvement, Continuous Auditing, Internal Audit Management, and governance risk and control enhancement.

After managing the very successful launch of Etienneaigner.com in the late 1990's, in 2010 he Co-founded LBIFoodies.com, with his son Marc Cangemi CPA.

He currently serves as a Board member of the Beach Haven Taxpayers Association. He has founded, manages and moderates a series of Economic Forums in NJ from 2009 to present. He served as a member of the Finance Committee of the Board of Solaris Health System <sup>SM</sup>, (now JFK Hospital Group); as Chairman of the Board of the Edison Chamber of Commerce and as a Director, Vice Chair and Chair of the Audit & Governance Committee of New Jersey Reads, Inc.(2003-2008). From 2006 to 2009 he served as Chairman of the Edison Project an Economic Development Initiative in Edison NJ. He has also served for a number of years as a member of the Edison Chamber of Commerce Economic Development Committee.

At FEI he launched new educational offerings related to IFRS, customized communications to address private companies and improved the organizations cash flow and net assets. He completed a two year term on the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB 2007-8)-Standards Advisory Council, served as the FEI representative on the Board of COSO and served as a member of the FASB's Financial Accounting Standards Advisory Council (FASAC), 2007 & 8, as the FEI representative, and 2009 & 10 as an independent member.

Aigner was the U.S. holding company of The Hartstone Group, PLC, a London Stock Exchange company. Michael joined Aigner as Senior Vice President & CFO and progressed to CEO and Director of Aigner and Finance Director and Board Member of the UK parent company. At Aigner, Michael led the company's expansion into licensing, electronic commerce programs (EDI) and launched EtienneAigner.com. During this period he also served as a Director of The National Fashion Accessories Association and FABB – Fashion Accessories Benefit Ball.

Prior to joining Aigner, Mr. Cangemi was Partner at BDO Seidman where he managed two practice divisions, IT Audit and Internal Audit Services, which he founded. Before joining BDO, Mr. Cangemi was General Auditor and then Corporate Vice President responsible for IT (CIO) at Phelps Dodge Corporation, a NYSE Fortune 500 mining and manufacturing company. Prior to joining Phelps Dodge, he was a principal at Ernst & Young where he managed the New York Region Computer Audit Program. Mr. Cangemi graduated from Pace University with a BBA degree. During his undergraduate years, he worked on Wall Street for Merrill Lynch and then Blair & Company.

Mr. Cangemi is a Certified Public Accountant (Retired), a Certified Global Management Accountant (CGMA – Honorary/Retired) and a Certified Information Systems Auditor (Honorary/Retired). He was the Editor-in-Chief of the IS Control Journal, in which his regular column, Issues & Comments appeared from 1987 to 2007. His Presidents Page editorial column appeared in Financial Executive magazine 2007 – 2008. In 1991, Mr. Cangemi co-authored Auditing in an EDP Environment.

Mr. Cangemi is a past International President of the IS Audit & Control Association (ISACA). After serving seven years as a director of ISACA, he was voted lifetime honorary membership. He is a life member of FEI and a life member of AICPA, for many years he was an active member Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA), and a member of the N.Y. Society of CPAs. He has served as a Trustee of the IIA Research Foundation, the ISACA Strategic Advisory Board, the Pace University Lubin School of Business Advisory Board and the Pace University Lubin School -Accounting Advisory Board.

Mr. Cangemi has been a speaker and keynote speaker at numerous conferences and corporate meetings. He is a recognized author of not only his books and his popular column, but in addition articles appearing in a number of publications including Director & Officers Advisor, Computers In Accounting, Internal Auditor, EDPACS, The Practical Accountant, Women's Wear Daily and Accessories Magazine, CNN Money.com He has been quoted in The New York Times, Brandweek, CFO Magazine, NJ Biz and Computerworld and has been a guest on CBS MarketWatch, K-Rock (radio), News 12 New Jersey and on Forbes Sky Radio.
