

Rutgers Business School
Newark and New Brunswick

Fourth Fraud Seminar

One Washington Park, Room 220

Newark, NJ 07102

<http://raw.rutgers.edu/fraud>

September 22, 2011

Agenda

- |                |  |
|----------------|--|
| 8:00 – 8:30    | Registration and coffee – 2 nd floor Student Lounge   |
| 8:30 – 10:10   | “Fraud Detection, Analytics &amp; Continuous Monitoring: Corporate Experiences”Professor Miklos Vasarhelyi, PhD.Rutgers Business SchoolDirector-Rutgers Accounting Research Center &Continuous Auditing & Reporting LabKPMG Professor of Accounting & Information Systems |
| 10:10 – 10:20  | Break  |
| 10:20 – 12:00  | “ Fraud Detection, Analytics &amp; Continuous Monitoring: Corporate Experiences”  |
| 12:00- - 12:30 | LUNCH - 2 nd floor Student Lounge   |
| 12:30 – 2:10   | “Why Good People Do Bad Things”Dr. Ann BuchholtzRutgers Business SchoolProfessor of Leadership and Ethics,Research Director, Institute for Ethical Leadership   |
| 2:10 – 2:30    | BREAK  |
| 2:30 – 4:20    | “The Application of Statistical Techniques in Forensic Investigation and in Litigation Support”Dr. Lynford GrahamVisiting Professor of Accountancy and Executive in Residence   |

Bentley University
Waltham, Massachusetts